

Online Application Guideline - Business Organizations -

To participate in the Global Compact, a business organization:

Prepares a Letter of Commitment (Fig. 1) signed by the Chief Executive Officer to the Secretary-General of the United Nations expressing commitment to

- the Global Compact and its ten principles; and
- take action in support of UN goals; and
- the annual submission of the Communication on Progress (COP).

Requirements of the Letter of Commitment for business organizations

- 1) The letter contains an official company letterhead;
- 2) The letter is addressed to the UN Secretary-General;
- 3) The statement includes the organization's commitment to the ten principles of Global Compact, taking action in support of UN goals, and the annual submission of the Communication on Progress (COP);
- 4) The COP will include the three necessary elements (statement signed by the chief executive expressing continued support for the Global Compact, a description of practical actions, and a measurement of outcomes).
- 5) The letter of commitment is signed by company's chief executive or equivalent (name and title must be legibly printed underneath the signature);
- 6) The letter of commitment (one-page statement) is scanned and available for upload before completing the Online Application Form.

Please note: The Commitment Letter is posted on the participant's profile page on the Global Compact website in order to promote transparency.

Completes the Online Application Form (Fig. 2a-2b below) and uploads a digital copy of the Letter of Commitment signed by the highest executive;

- The name of the company's chief executive who signed the Letter of Commitment must correspond with the entry in the online registration form.
- To ensure that your Letter of Commitment fulfill the requirements stated above.

2. The letter is addressed to the UN Secretary-General

3. The statement includes an organization's commitment to the Ten Global Compact Principles

Dear Mr. Secretary-General,

I am pleased to confirm that Inspiration & Solutions supports the ten principles of the Global Compact with respect to human rights, labour, environment and anti-corruption.

With this communication, we express our intent to advance those principles within our sphere of influence. We are committed to making the Global Compact and its principles part of the strategy, culture and day-to-day operations of our company, and to engaging in collaborative projects which advance the broader development goals of the United Nations, particularly the Millennium Development Goals. Inspiration & Solutions will make a clear statement of this commitment to our stakeholders and the general public.

4. The statement includes a commitment to engage in partnerships to advance the broad UN goals, and the annual submission of the Communication on Progress (COP).

We recognize that a key requirement for participation in the Global Compact is the annual submission of a Communication on Progress (COP) that describes our company's efforts to implement the ten principles. We support public accountability and transparency, and therefore commit to report on progress within one year of joining the Global Compact, and annually thereafter according to the Global Compact COP policy. This includes:

5. The COP will include the three necessary elements (statement signed by chief executive expressing continued support for the Global Compact, a description of practical actions, and a measurement of outcomes).

- A statement signed by the chief executive expressing continued support for the Global Compact and renewing our ongoing commitment to the initiative and its principles. This is separate from our initial letter of commitment to join the Global Compact.
- A description of practical actions (i.e., disclosure of any relevant policies, procedures, activities) that the company has taken (or plans to undertake) to implement the Global Compact principles in each of the four issue areas (human rights, labour, environment, anti-corruption).
- A measurement of outcomes (i.e., the degree to which targets/performance indicators were met, or other qualitative or quantitative measurements of results).

Sincerely yours,

Ms. Erica Johnson
CEO, Inspiration & Solutions

6. The letter is signed by the company's chief executive or equivalent (name and title must be legibly printed underneath the signature).

7. The letter (a one-page statement) is scanned and available for upload before completing the On-line Application Form.

The screenshot shows the 'Business Organization Application' form on the United Nations Global Compact website. The page is titled 'HOW TO PARTICIPATE' and includes a navigation menu with options like 'About Us', 'How to Participate', 'Reporting', 'Participants & Stakeholders', 'Local Networks', 'Issues', 'News & Events', and 'Login'. The main content area is titled 'Business Organization Application' and features a section for 'Financial Commitment' which is circled in red. An arrow points from this section to an orange callout box. The 'Financial Commitment' section explains that companies are asked to make a regular annual contribution to support the work of the UN Global Compact Office. It provides a table for selecting an annual contribution based on annual sales/revenue. The table has two columns: 'Annual sales/revenue' and 'Annual contribution'. The first row is selected, showing 'Less than USD 50 million' with a contribution of 'USD 100'. Other options include 'Between USD 50 million – USD 250 million' (USD 5,000), 'Between USD 250 million – USD 1 billion' (USD 10,000), 'Between USD 1 billion – USD 10 billion' (USD 15,000), 'USD 10 billion or more' (USD 15,000+), and 'Our company has elected not to make a contribution to the Foundation for the Global Compact at this time'. A 'Next' button is located at the bottom right of the form. The footer includes logos for the Foundation for the Global Compact, Global Compact, PRME, PRI, and Global Compact One Programme.

Financial Commitment

Companies are asked to make a regular annual contribution to support the work of the UN Global Compact Office. This revenue is critical to the development of value-maximizing programmes, projects and resources for the benefit of all participating companies. These contributions are received, administered and distributed through the Foundation for the Global Compact - a non-profit 501(c)(3) - and are therefore tax deductible in many jurisdictions. We have highlighted the amount of your annual contribution.
